GUEST SITTING ROOM

Joe Lucas/Parrish Chilcoat

Ln contrast to the formality of Greystone, the Guest Sitting Room by Joe Lucas and Parrish Chilcoat has all the relaxed charm of a California bungalow. Ferrick Mason's wall fabric captures a strong masculine spirit even as its open ground pattern balances the weighty framework of the home's original woodwork. The mix of uniquely shaped pieces entertains the eye as colorful pillows and a sculptural sofa reinforce the room's raison d'être as a comfortable haven.
